BDKF/C/Misc/187	Haverthwaite Fishery	Case for the opinion of Mr John Pearson 26 Apr 1869 regarding the bona fide fishing rights in the river Leven from the foot of Lake Windermere to a place in the Leven Estuary some distance below the point to which the tide flows and reflows. The present Duke of Devonshire has had possession of the fishery for upwards of 30	1869

		years and has regularly received rent for it. The landowner was granted an injunction in 1867 against William Bird, William John Bird, William Johnson and John Hall restraining them from fishing which was breached by two of the men in 1868 who were subsequently imprisoned but released after signing an engagement not to trespass again. J B Quain, Temple 6 May 1869 provides his opinion on the case. Devonshire's Fishery Copy opinion of Mr Dodgson 7 August 1867

BDKF/C/Misc/189	Fishing Enquiry	Draft Evidence of Mr John Casson Johnson, Fisherman of Bardsea, near Ulverston born 1816 and fishing since he was 6 years of age. His father and grandfather were fishermen and fished on the same ground. Copies sent to Mr John Fell and Mr Johnson He is concerned about the damage done by the scale and method of shrimp fishing and the scarcity of flat fish as a result. He has also seen a decline in the cockle beds within the last 30 years and especially since the Sea Birds Protection Act. He suggests all fishermen should be able to carry a gun to scare away the larger gulls and return to hand picking of the cockles. Flat fish are also in decline in size and numbers due to fishing for sparling and shrimping and salmon are also affected.	20 May 1878
